

A mock up of the theatre seating rows with three sample chairs for consideration for the renovation set up in the lobby for patrons and students vote on their preference.

The donor preferred one style, but the overwhelming majority of votes for another style swayed her to support another.

